Try LBRY

LBRY is all about sharing your creations with the world.

One thing you can't do (yet!) is sharing your tangible, physical works. But today is the next best thing. Welcome one of the best DIY channels on the web to LBRY.

Bob of @ILikeToMakeStuff builds anything and everything for the fun of it, and you're along for the ride. Stormtrooper helmet? Check. Outdoor tool bed? Check. Rube Goldberg machine? Easy peasy.

If you're like us, you spend a lot of time building things indoors. Not moving. At a desk.

Bob shows you just how fun building cool things that you actually want to make can be, all while getting your blood pumping.

Bob, LBRY. LBRYians, Bob.

Reilly Smith · · ·

For nearly a decade, Reilly has developed, produced, championed and contributed to dozens of film projects big and small.

The only thing that rivals his love of film is the marriage between content and blockchain.

If you come from the world of film, television or web content, he's your sherpa on Mount Blockchain.

Reilly's work has been seen from Oxford, Mississippi to Sundance Film Festival, and he has produced content for Fox Digital Studios and Disney LOL.
